CORAM : DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD, J.

DATE : 06TH JULY 2007

PC :

1. The Appellate Court has discussed the entire evidence on record in paragraph 11 and paragraph 13 of the impugned Judgment, in particular. The evidence shows that the first respondent (original plaintiff no.1) has duly established long standing possession which was referable to a voluminous documentary record and that the possession in the present case was based on title. The judgment of the First Appellate Court is based on the evidence on record. No substantial question arises in the Second Appeal. The Appeal is accordingly dismissed.
